

RSE Transition Year Module – Sarah Fitzpatrick

Subject: RSE

Number of Periods per week: 2 Periods

Class Teacher: Ms. Fitzpatrick

Aims and objective:

- Acquire the understanding and skills necessary to form healthy relationships. Acquire the skills to identify toxic behaviours.
- Understand human physiology with particular reference to the reproductive cycle and sexually transmitted infections
- Develop strategies for decisions and actions. Effective communication.
- Define the term consent and understand the Irish laws surrounding consent.

Course content:

- Consent – what does it look like, everyday examples, what does non consent look, ‘grey areas’ of consent, Irish laws
- Healthy relationships and identifying toxic behaviours
- Sexually transmitted Infections & Contraception
- Media influence on consent & relationships

Method of assessment:

- E-Learning module on consent
- Participation in class.
- Research
- Opinion pieces on news articles.

Digital Learning Skills :

All work done through Teams and OneNote. E-Learning Module

